

Menominee Nation News

Volume 27, Number 22

Monday, November 24, 2003

75¢

Primary legislature election results

Trilby Beauprey McIntosh
Menominee Nation News

The breakdown of votes cast in the Primary Election were provided by Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin Tribal Election Commission. The results are as follows:

Theodore “Tony” Warrington, Keshena 135 votes, 43 Neopit votes and 249 absentee votes for a total of 427 votes.

Annmarie Johnson, Keshena 163 votes, 47 Neopit votes and 172 absentee votes for a total of 382 votes.

Alan Caldwell, Keshena 124 votes, 43 Neopit votes and 187 absentee votes for a total of 354 votes.

Douglas G. Cox, Keshena 151 votes, 25 Neopit votes and 168 absentee votes for a total of 344 votes.

Albert “Al” Fowler, Keshena 101 votes, 41 Neopit votes and 190 absentee votes for a total of 332 votes.

Stephanie Awonohopay, Keshena 125 votes, 54 Neopit votes and 146 absentee votes for a total of 325 votes.

Barbara Katchenago-Caldwell, Keshena 106 votes, 50 Neopit votes and 162 absentee votes for a total of 318 votes.

Kenneth “Bum-Bum” Fish, Keshena 107 votes, 31 Neopit votes and 168 absentee votes for a total of 306 votes.

Myrna “Tudy” Warrington, Keshena 90 votes, 35 Neopit votes and 173 absentee votes for a total of 298 votes.

See Results pg. 4

Corrine Menore, crime victim specialist receives F.B.I.’s distinguished director’s community leadership award

T. Beauprey McIntosh/MNN

F.B.I. Special Agent of the Milwaukee Division, David B. Mitchell, (center) reads the FBI’s Director’s Community Leadership Award to Crime Victim Specialist Corrine Menore, while Assistant U.S. Attorney, Bill Roach, unknown F.B.I. agent, Karen Sheperd and Jennifer Thompson F.B.I. Victim Specialists look on.

Trilby Beauprey McIntosh
Menominee Nation News

The day welcomed our area’s first snowfall for the season on Monday, November 3, 2003. This was no ordinary day. Anticipation mounted as the boardroom for the Menominee Indian Tribe came alive with the friends, family and co-workers of Corrine Menore.

This was the day the Federal Bureau of Investigation was to present Corrine Menore with its’ community leadership award aptly named, “Director’s Community Leadership Award.”

Police Chief, Judy Duquaine made the initial introduction of Special Agent, David Mitchell in charge of the F.B.I.’s Milwaukee Division, Jenny Thompson Victim Witness Specialist for the F.B.I., Faith Coburn, Victim Witness Specialist for the U.S. Attorney’s office and Bill Roach, Assistant U.S. Attorney.

Chairperson, Joan Delabreau presented congratulations to Corrine. Chairperson Delabreau noted it was through Corrine’s dedication and excellence on the job, that brought this well deserved recognition to Corrine.

F.B.I., Special Agent in charge of the Milwaukee Division, David Mitchell, provided some laughs, as he had fun attempting to pronounce the town of Keshena’s name. Having moved to Wisconsin from Tennessee a year and a half ago Mr. Mitchell showed promise after pronouncing Keshena correctly his second attempt. David Mitchell proceeded with the honorable task of presenting the award to Corrine by explaining the Director’s Community Leadership Award is presented once a year in Wisconsin. Mr. Mitchell went on to comment on the devotion Corrine Menore has provided on a 24/7 basis to serve the needs of all crime victims on the Menominee Indian Reservation since July of 1997.

See Leadership Award pg. 5

Menominee Nation News
P.O. Box 910
Keshena, WI 54135-0910

Presorted Standard
U.S. Postage Paid
Keshena, WI
Permit No. 16

Inside this issue

Chair’s Notes	2	Education	16-20
Comments	3	Health	21-23
Community	4-9, 15	Vital Stats	24
Sports	10-13	Legislative Minutes	26, 27
Happy Ads	14	MISD Minutes	27